.....RESPONDENTS

Petition under Article 226 of the Constitution of India praying that in the circumstances stated in the affidavit filed herein the High Court may be pleased to issue an order, direction or Writ one in the nature of Writ of Mandamus or any other appropriate Writ declaring the action of the respondents as illegal, arbitrary and against the rights enshrined in the Constitution of India and against the principles of natural justice by directing the respondents not to interfere with the day to day affairs of petitioners institution activities in the interest of justice.

Counsel for the Petitioner: MR.P.RAMACHANDRAN

Counsel for the Respondent Nos.1 & 2: GP FOR HOME

The Court at the stage of admission made the following ORDER:

There was no representation for the petitioner on 18-11-2004. Even today none appears for the petitioner.

This writ petition is filed seeking a declaration that the alleged action of the respondents in interfering with the day-to-day affairs of the petitioner's institution, as arbitrary and illegal.

Learned Government Pleader for Home, appearing for the respondents, under instructions states that the respondents have not locked the premises of the petitioner and that though Crime No.1199 of 2003 on the file of Sanjeeva Reddy Nagar Police Station, Hyderabad is pending against the petitioner for an offence under Section 420 I.P.C., the respondents are not interfering with the lawful business of the petitioner.

In the light of the statement of the learned Government Pleader, no further adjudication is necessary.

Accordingly, recording the statement of the learned Government Pleader, the writ petition is disposed of. No costs.
